

L'AMY America Launches Nicole Miller Jeweled Ophthalmic Eyewear!

Wilton, Conn. – April 2016. Sparkly news is happening for the Nicole Miller eyewear collection this spring 2016! The Nicole Miller brand is launching a new ophthalmic collection called Nicole Miller Jeweled. The four new styles- each named after a precious stone - were directly inspired by Nicole Miller's gorgeous embellished dresses that were a perfect inspiration for this new collection. Subtle stones, both colored and clear, add sparkle and glam to the modern styling resulting in styling that is chic and relevant for today's sophisticated woman.

The Nicole Miller Jeweled Amber style features a triple laminate solid or tortoise front coupled with complementary colored temples in rich, sophisticated colors. The modern modified cat eye shape is modern and the temple is enhanced with two triangle shaped clear crystal stones set in a textured metal design that evokes Nicole Miller's tough-girl styling. Three colorways: black/crystal with rich olive green temples, tortoise/cotton candy with bittersweet temples, and red tortoise with deep red temples. Size 54-16-135. $79.95 wholesale.

With a rounded modern shape and double layered acetate design interspersed with crystals in various sizes both on the front of the frame and on the temples where they are outlined in cutout acetate, the Nicole Miller Bijou style offers a touch of subtle sparkle. Three colorways: black/berry with jet stones, tortoise/mosaic teal with crystal stones, and dark purple/orchid with light amethyst stones. Flex hinges for comfort. Size 51-16-135. $79.95 wholesale.

The semi rimless Nicole Miller Gemma style with metal front and acetate temples invokes the kind of tough-girl chic that is the hallmark of Nicole Miller's collections. The inset stones in complementary colors are interspersed with Nicole's New York City street grate raised metal detail on the temple before transitioning into a rich double laminate. Three colorways: black/pink horn with crystal stones, matte brown with brown/pink horn temples and amethyst stones, and deep purple/purple horn with amethyst stones. Size 53-18-135. $79.95 wholesale.

The Nicole Miller Esme style features a metal front executed in a modern shape, with rich acetate contrasting colored temples that feature a textured crisscross wave pattern interspersed with small complementary colored crystals. Three colorways: matte black/bittersweet temples with clear crystals, matte brown with cerulean temples and light sapphires, and matte burgundy with black temples and clear crystals. Flex hinges for comfort. Size 53-16-135. $79.95 wholesale.
